GRACE

Designer: Toni Rie

Glass pendant.

GRACE challenges the chromatic status quo with the toned glass to create a look – and a discreet light – that's all their own.

GRACE pendants also go their own way with an asymmetric cut through the glass shade. The effect is beguiling, feminine and fun. Who says you can't change a room with a single dash of style?

The GRACE pendant is beautiful above the dining table – and depending on the length of the table, the expression just becomes more beautiful, the more pendants hanging over the table. You can also easily hang the pendant next to your favourite armchair – or sofa.
